In Sickness and in Health – Patient Involvement in Health Research

- How are patients & families helping to solve the mysteries of common diseases like stroke, diabetes, multiple sclerosis, pain, sleep disorders, and others?
- How have local patients contributed to inventions, system innovations & world firsts?
- What type of research takes place in local academic hospitals?
- How are participants' rights and safety protected?

You're invited to a Café Scientifique on the role of the patients and the public in the research occurring in the region's local academic healthcare organizations. Hear some fascinating stories & bring your thoughts & questions too. We look forward to seeing you there!
