Emerging Team Grant - Regenerative Medicine and Nanomedicine (2009-2010)

Part of CIHR's mandate is to promote research that addresses Nanotechnology Applied to Health (Nanomedicine), Stem Cells, Tissue Engineering, and Rehabilitation Sciences. The purpose of this funding opportunity is to further strengthen multi-disciplinary research approaches to regenerative medicine and nanomedicine by supporting truly innovative and leading edge multi-disciplinary research directed against key health research problems. It is expected that this targeted investment will lead to the long-term goal of developing innovative and socially-validated treatment approaches based on the science of regenerative medicine and nanomedicine that will ultimately result in improved quality of life for individuals, their families, and populations.
